World Wheelchair Rugby Nationality Policy

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Any athlete participating in an WWR-sanctioned event as a member of a national team must be a national of the country entering the team.
2. This policy applies to all athletes participating in WWR sanctioned competitions. This policy does not apply to non-athlete participants including coaches, managers, and other team staff.
3. The term 'country' refers to any country, state, territory, or part of a territory, which is accepted by WWR as the area of jurisdiction of a member of WWR.

DETERMINATION OF NATIONALITY

4. An athlete's nationality is determined by the citizenship of the athlete. Proof of citizenship shall generally be that the athlete holds an official passport issued by the country. Evidence of legal residence or domicile will not be accepted as evidence of nationality unless otherwise permitted by any of the terms of this policy.
5. An athlete who is a national of two or more countries at the same time may choose to represent either one of them. However, after having represented one of the countries in a WWR sanctioned event, the athlete may not represent another country without meeting the conditions for a change of nationality.

CHANGE OF NATIONALITY

6. An athlete who has represented one country in a WWR sanctioned event who changes nationality, who acquires a new nationality, or who holds two or more nationalities, may change the country they represent to one of their other nationalities. The athlete may represent a new country in WWR-sanctioned competition after three years have passed since the athlete last represented the former country. This waiting period may be reduced to one year with the agreement of the WWR member for the athlete's former country.

PARTICIPATION IN NON-WWR EVENTS

7. This policy applies only to athletes participating in the sport of Wheelchair Rugby in WWR licensed events. Recognition of nationality by WWR does not obligate another sport federation to recognize the same nationality, and recognition of nationality by another sport federation does not obligate WWR to recognize the same nationality. In particular, nationality requirements for Paralympic Games are set by IPC and athletes participating in Wheelchair Rugby at Paralympic Games are required to follow IPC rules for determining nationality and for change of nationality.

SPECIAL STATUS

8. WWR recognizes National Paralympic Committees (NPCs) in good standing with the International Paralympic Committee (IPC) in determining jurisdiction of member countries. As IPC recognizes certain NPCs for territories that are not sovereign states, the concept of 'nationality' may not always follow the general principle set out above. The WWR Board of Directors will have absolute discretion to determine the nationality eligibility requirements of athletes representing such territories.

9. WWR will have regard to the plight of stateless persons (as that phrase is understood in international law and more specifically defined in the UN Convention on the Reduction of Statelessness, the 1951 UN Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees and the 1967 Protocol Relating to the Status of Refugees). WWR will determine the eligibility requirements of any athlete deemed to be a stateless person.

10. Regardless of the provisions of this policy, any athlete who as of the date of implementation of this policy by the WWR Board of Directors was recognized as a national of a country shall continue to be permitted to represent that country in international competition until such time as they retire from the sport or changes nationality in accordance with the provisions of this policy.

PROCEDURES

11. Any application for a change of nationality, or for any consideration under specific or exceptional circumstances, shall be submitted to WWR by the country who wishes to enter the athlete into competition. The application shall be accompanied by all relevant evidence and any other documentation as required by WWR. This may include but is not limited to the evidence of support from the country of origin.

12. Where an athlete competitor objects to the nationality attributed to him or her under the above rules and where genuine exceptional circumstances exist, or in circumstances not fully covered by the above rules, an athlete may apply to WWR for a ruling their nationality. On such an application WWR may take all decisions of a general or individual nature with regard to issues resulting from nationality, citizenship, domicile or residence of any competitor, including the duration of any waiting period or any other requirements or conditions.

13. The WWR Board normally delegates authority to the Secretary General to decide and resolve all matters relating to the determination of the country that a competitor may represent in WWR competitions.
