Is the correct? Answer: No. Team A must indicate the team line-up first. Then Team B will indicate their line-up. Team A coach will be allowed to view the score sheet to see Team B line-up, but no substitutions will be allowed to match the other team's line-up.
5.39.1	Try and Bench Selection	During warm-up, the home team selects the bench on the right side of the court. They begin to warm up on their side of the court. At the tip-off the players in the center circle set up facing the incorrect try line and it is not notice until after the ball is live. What should the official do?	At the tip-off the players in the centre circle set up facing the incorrect try line and it is not notice until after the ball is live. WWR Casebook Amendments and Changes

6.42.2	Correctible Error	Answer: a) No. This is a correctable error and play goes back to the point of the inbound, no penalty is sanctioned. b) No. This is a correctable error and play goes back to the point of the inbound, no penalty is sanctioned	Answer: a) No. This is a correctable error and play goes back to the point of the inbound, no penalty is sanctioned and the game clock and forty second clock are reset. b) No. This is a correctable error and play goes back to the point of the inbound, no penalty is sanctioned and the game clock and forty second clock are reset.
7.59	Fallen Player		Rule: Art. 59. Note: The timing of fallen player stoppage (1 minute) will begin once the player has been righted.
8.62.4	Alternate Possession	On the opening tip-off, center A3 taps the ball out of bounds. The referee declares the tip-off void and restarts the tip-off. The game clock is reset to 8:00. Is this correct?	On the opening tip-off, the ball is tapped out of bounds. The referee declares the tip-off void as it can't be determined which player tipped the ball out of bounds. The referee restarts the tip-off, and the game clock is reset to 8:00. Is this correct?
8.67.3	Dribbling the Ball	Answer: Yes. If the referees conclude that A2 definitively dribbled the ball within 10 seconds, the call is considered an inadvertent whistle. Team A should retain possession and the forty second clock is reset.	Answer: Yes. The situation is managed as a correctable error as it is decided that A1 did dribble the ball.
8.69.7	Throw-in	Player A1 indicates that he is the in-bounder. Instead of progressing directly to the inbound position, A1 delays to allow his team to get into position. The referee blows his whistle and places the ball on the ground to begin the 10 second count. Is this correct?	Player A1 indicates that he is the in-bounder. Instead of progressing directly to the inbound position, A1 delays to allow his team to get into position or attempts to block a defensive player on the court. The referee blows his whistle and warns the Team A about delaying the game. A1 is still required to inbound the ball. If the situation occurs again in the game, a technical foul will be called for delay of game. Is this correct?
8.70.9 New Case	Substitutions		Substitutions from the substitution area may enter the court from any part of the substitution area (front or side) and at any location on the team bench area. Is this correct? Answer: Yes. Players are not limited to entering from the substitution area only.
